

Social Media Content Coordinator

A7D Creative Group, Inc. - San Diego, CA

A7D Creative Group is a creative agency, specializing in graphic design, menu design, web design, branding, marketing and social media, as well as large format design, printing and installation. Our clients come from a variety of industries, with the majority being restaurants, bars and breweries right here in San Diego.

Located in North Park, we take full advantage of the amazing restaurants and delicious craft beer that surrounds us. We are a team-focused, collaborative group, and value hard work, creative minds and great attitudes from our team members!

We're looking for an entry level Social Media Content Coordinator to monitor, post and respond in real-time to tweets, as well as Instagram and Facebook comments in the brand voice.

This is a part time position, with the ideal team member being available weekends, holidays and some evenings, including off-site special events, occasional account visits and weekly meetings in our office.

Requirements:

Experience with all social media networks, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest and Google+

Love for all things sports

Interest in San Diego current events

Strong writing ability

Strong organization and ability to multitask

Good eye for design

Great social media etiquette
