SSU FIELD TRIP

This quarter we visited the companies Illumina, Amazon, and Proud Digital to give students an insight into American companies.

CHANCELLOR'S LIST

SPRING 2019

SSU regularly recognizes students who have achieved a GPA of 3.8 or higher during the previous quarter by including their names on the Chancellor's List. Students listed here achieved this honor in the Spring 2019 quarter. The high caliber of scholarship achieved by these students enhances the quality of education for all of our students at our learning community. I congratulate them for their contribution to scholarly life at Southern States University. - John D. Tucker, Chancellor

NEW EMPLOYEES

Charlotte Hislop, MBA PhD

SSU's academic team is excited to welcome Dr. Charlotte Hislop in the position of Chief Academic Officer (CAO). Dr. Charlotte Hislop began her educational career in 1996 when she joined the team of Allied Business Schools, Inc. Her impact was immediately felt as she applied her knowledge to grow Allied from a small real estate pre-licensure academy to an organization that offered other vocational training programs, a WASC-accredited four-year high school, and a University that serviced the needs of the U.S. Military and veterans. From March 2010 until 2015 Dr. Hislop directed the operations of Allied American University. She successfully drove University operations to profitability, improved persistence and retention metrics, earned national accreditation from the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC), gained entrance into the Federal Student Aid program (Title IV), managed governing board activities, and achievedWSCUC regional accreditation candidacy status. After leaving Allied, she oversaw the activities of Bridgepoint Education's Student Dispute Resolution Center (SDRC) addressing student complaints using proven dispute resolution methods that emphasize fair resolution between the institution and the student in order to allow for continued student success and minimize liabilities for the institution. Most recently, Dr. Hislop served as Vice President of Academic Affairs at American College of Healthcare Sciences.

Eric Dantas is a current MBA student at Irvine campus. He graduated in Business Administration in Brazil. He has worked in the most diverse sectors that the profession allows: sales, financial, logistics, human resources, purchasing sector, marketing and others always seeking to learn the maximum and add value to the companies he has worked for. Now he is working at the Irvine location as an SSU Ambassador. Eric speaks English, Portuguese and Spanish.

NEW EMPLOYEES

Juliano Teruel is an elite athlete that raced professionally for many years. Originally from Brazil, he was a national champion swimmer at the age of 16, later becoming an Olympic hopeful for his country. Juliano moved to San Diego at a young age, made a transition to triathlons, and raced all over the world for years while coaching. He has been prominently featured worldwide as an elite athlete and coach. Juliano has joined SSU to bring a sense of community to our campuses. As Director of Student Success, Juliano caters specifically to the students. He plans activities, company tours, and field trips for our SSU community.

Becca Tepper is the Director of Diversity and Recruitment at SSU. After going abroad, traveling the world through Semester at Sea, and meeting people of all different lifestyles and cultures, Becca set off on her journey to compete for Miss Jetset Magazine. Becca used her marketing skills to compete with over 10,000 women worldwide and win Miss Jetset Magazine and $50,000 which she used to open her first Business. It was her shrewd ability to galvanize supporters online that led to her victory.

Becca loves connecting with our business students, and hearing about their goals and helping them achieve these goals. She is a humble, caring, young woman with a tenacious work ethic and an erudite knowledge of social media marketing. Becca is excited to help our SSU students understand what the possibilities are after they graduate, and is using her connections to plan many events and student tours for our University.
